MASONIC INTELLIGENCE,

The Great Light in Masonry.

ARTICLE FOURTH. THE ACACIA.

How far it can be proven that the Acacia (or, as the old Masonic writers spell it, Cassia) has a Masonic application, will not be attempted in the present article. The writer has his doubts whether the word Acacia in the Masonic lectures is not used merely as a general name for evergreen, but for the present will not intrude this theory upon the readers of the National Freemason. The term Acacia is not found in the Holy Scriptures; its synonym being "the Shittah-tree," or "Shittim wood." Several species of Acacia occur in Bible lands, among which may be specified A. Segal, A. Nilotica, A. Arabica, A. Tortilis, etc. Of these the first is most probably the kind so extensively used in the construction of the tabernacle—the ark of the covenant and the staves for carrying it—the table of shew-bread and its staves—the altar of burnt offerings with its staves, and the altar of incense with its staves, all being made of it. The Egyptian name of the Acacia tree is Sont, Sant and Santh. On Mount Sinai it grows to the size of a mulberry tree. It is abundant throughout the peninsula of Sinai, and was doubtless "the Burning Bush" of Moses. It yields the well known substance called Gum Arabic.

In the Holy Land it is not so common, although the traveler need not search in vain for it. A valley on the west side of the Dead sea, about thirty miles southeast of Jerusalem, is so noted for the abundance of this plant as to derive its name, Wady Seyal (Acacia Valley), from the circumstance. The student of Freemasonry must not confound this tree with the well known North American plant denominated "Acacia," which belongs to an entirely different genus and sub-order, and is properly named Robinia pseudo-acacia. The true acacias are mostly tropical, having compressed hard and durable wood; their botanical order is Leguminosæ, sub-order Mimoseæ.

Plants of the order Leguminosæ abound in all situations in Palestine, especially the genera Trifolium, Trigonella, Melilotus, Lotus, Vicia and Orobus in the richer soils, and Astragalus in enormous profusion in the drier and more barren districts. Of the shrubby plants of this order there are a few species of Genista, Ophrus, Ononis, Retama, Anagyris, Calycotome, Coronilla, and Acacia. In the valley of the Jordan the Acacia Farnesiana is very abundant, and celebrated for the delicious fragrance of its yellow flowers. It is chiefly upon this tree that superb mistletoe, Loranthus Acaciæ, grows, whose scarlet flowers are brilliant ornaments to the desert during the winter, giving the appearance of flame to the bushes. On the banks of the Jordan itself the arborescus and shrubbery vegetation includes the Acacia Vera. Near the southeast corner of the Dead sea, Lynch records the presence of "groves of acacia." Expedition, p. 341.

Italian Masonry.

We take the following from Le Monde Maconnique, believing our readers take an interest in the condition of Masonry in Italy:

The Official Bulletin of the Grand Orient of Italy divides Italian Masonry into four groups:

1. The Lodges comprising the Grand Orient of Florence, which, it says, is the only regular one, as it is the only one recognized by the Masonic powers of the two hemispheres. It is composed of one hundred and fifty Lodges, professing the liberty of the rites, and having at its head Frapolli de Lugo.

2. The group of Lodges of the Scotch Rite, with Garibaldi for Grand Master, having its center at Palermo, with some Lodges and Masonic bodies in Sicily, and a half dozen lodges on the continent of the Italian peninsula.

3. The seven or eight symbolic Lodges having their center at Milan, with Bro. Zobeido Franchi at their head.

4. The Central Supreme Council of Sicily, A. and A. Scottish Rite, presided over by the Prince of St. Elia, with a small number of Lodges, very respectable, though not recognized, at Palermo.

The three last groups not being recognized by the Grand Lodges, are regarded by the Official Bulletin as irregular. "They can not," it says, "be truly called Masonic, as they are not a part of the family of the Masonic world; but, out of regard to the high esteem which is due to their chiefs and to part of their members, they were invited to join with us in forming a single Masonic body in Italy, and to mingle, upon a footing of equality, in the General Assembly of Naples, with the lodges gathered around the Grand Orient of Italy. The Grand Masters Garibaldi and Luca published the call for the convocation, and the meeting took place on the 21st of June last. Grand Master Luca assisted in it, and presided; Grand Master Garibaldi was represented, the center of St. Elia sent its adhesion; Bro. Ausonia Franchi sent his ardent wishes for the union.

"The results of the assembly will fill with joy all honest Masons. Never has there been a more imposing congress of delegates of Lodges; never has an assembly deliberated with more dignity and fraternal good feeling. A great number of Lodges, it is true, could not be represented on account of the sanitary condition of some portions of the country, and only a small number of the irregular Lodges sent deputies. Some brethren protested in favor of isolation and a barren and impotent freedom, against the aspirations of an immense majority of the honest Masons of Italy, of all rites. To day the group of the Central Supreme Council of Sicily is blended with the grand Italian commutation, and the centers of Palermo and Milan can no longer pride themselves on having at their head the remarkable men who alone gave to them an appearance of existence. The unity of Masonry is virtually accomplished; upon us Masons of Italy devolves the duty of consolidating that unity."

The Grand Orient of Belgium has addressed a demand to the three Prussian Grand Lodges, asking recognition by them. It received the following reply:

"The Prussian Grand Lodges are ready to recognize, anew, the Grand Orient of Belgium, to enter into fraternal relations with them, and to receive the Belgian brethren into their Lodges, provided that the Grand Orient of Belgium recognizes and accepts, as a fundamental law of the Masonic alliance, the paragraph which excludes political and religious dissensions from the work of Masonry—a paragraph by them stricken out of the Masonic code several years since."

Masonic Penalties.

[A. G. MACKEY, 33°.]

In like manner, we may say of what are called Masonic penalties, that they refer in no case to any kind of human punishment; that is to say, to any kind of punishment which is to be inflicted by human hand or instrumentality. The true punishments of Masonry affect neither life nor limb. They are expulsion and suspension only. But those persons are wrong, be they mistaken friends or malignant enemies, who suppose or assert that there is any other sort of penalty which a Mason recreant to his vows is subjected to by the laws of the Order, or that it is either the right or duty of any Mason to inflict such penalty on an offending brother. The obsecration of a Mason simply means that if he violates his vows or betrays his trust he is worthy of such penalty, and that if such penalty were inflicted on him it would be but just and proper. "May I die," said the ancient, "if this be not true, or if I keep not this vow." Not may any man put me to death, nor is any man required to put me to death, but only, if I so act, then would I be worthy of death. The ritual penalties of Masonry, supposing such to be, are in the hands not of man, but of God, and are to be inflicted by God, and not by man.

LOUISIANA ITEMS.

—There were two inches of snow on the ground at Marksville on the 1st inst.

—Five prisoners escaped from the jail of Avoyelles parish on the 24th ult. They beat and overcome the jailor with clubs.

—We learn from the Natchitoches Times that, while crossing Monette's Ferry the mail coach, mail and two horses went overboard. The mails were saved.

—Mrs. Goddard and her three children were all nearly burned to death in Natchitoches, the other day, by the clothes of the youngest taking fire, and thence communicating it to those of the others.

—The Washington correspondent of the New Orleans Bcayune says: "The extent to which negro worship is carried in this city is positively amazing. It seems to pervade all classes and all ranks, with the single exception of that small class of the citizens who have opposed negro equality from the first."

—There were in New York City last year 7841 more births than deaths, and 7513 marriages.

—Mr. Sumner, chairman of the Senate Committee on Foreign Affairs is reported to be strongly opposed to Mr. Banks' bill for the protection of naturalized citizens abroad, and it will probably have to undergo essential modification before it can pass.

—A dog has been pitched to fight pig in Brooklyn for $100. The dog weighs 50 pounds and the pig weighs 39 pounds.

THE IMPORTANCE OF CONGRESSIONAL AID TO THE SOUTHERN PACIFIC RAILWAY.

BY VOLNEY E. HOWARD.

[CONCLUDED FROM YESTERDAY.]

RESOURCES OF ARIZONA.

In relation to the route from the Rio Grande to the Colorado, Lieut. Beale agrees in the main with Whipple. That the route is highly advantageous, and traverses a country containing a large area of good agricultural land, and a region abounding in grazing, water, wood and timber, and rich in mineral resources. Since these reports were made, not only rich deposits of the precious metals have been discovered, but rich mines of lead, copper and iron, which would alone support a railway. Mountains of salt have also been discovered in Arizona and New Mexico, which will be found of the greatest benefit, not only for general use, but the working of the mines. There is no longer any doubt that both Arizona and New Mexico are destined to astonishing development by the means of railway.

CALIFORNIA FREIGHTS.

The Southern road will tap one of the finest grazing regions of the world. Previous to the rebellion, a large business was carried on by driving cattle from Texas to Illinois, where they were fattened for a season, and then transported to New York and other markets, on the railroad. The vast gramina plains of New Mexico and Arizona will ultimately be turned to account in the same way. A writer in a late number of the Merchants' Magazine shows from the statistics that railways are already taking the lead of the New York canals in the transportation of Western produce.

From Southern California we can send forward the product of our mines, wool, wine, oil, brandy, hides, tallow, the orange, the lemon, the olive, the pomegranate, the walnut and the almond. The grape of California is the most luscious table grape of the world, and could be so packed as to arrive in New York and other markets in perfect preservation. Mr. Keller, of Los Angelos, a few years since, shipped a box by the way of Panama, to Mr. Longworth, of Cincinnati, which arrived in tolerable preservation by that route, and some of the finest bunches were exhibited by Mr. Longworth as curiosities in the principal hotels. By railway they would arrive in perfect condition.

The people in the Southern counties should cultivate extensively the orange and other semi-tropical products. If they plant the trees now, they may be sure of a railway transportation before they are in full bearing; and, as these fruits do not bear transportation through the tropics by sea, we can never have any successful competition.

In what other part of the Union can you grow the cereals, all sorts of vegetables, the orange, the lemon, and almost every other fruit on the same farm?

ROUTE FROM THE COLORADO.

The survey of Lieut. Whipple contemplated that the railroad would reach San Pedro by way of the Cajon Pass. Subsequent explorations have demonstrated that the true route is by the San Gorgonio Pass, through San Bernardino, as shorter in distance and better supplied with timber and water. Besides, from the San Gorgorio, San Diego, in 120 miles, can be reached, as well as San Pedro, and it is of the utmost importance that the road should connect with both these posts, as well as San Francisco.

From the Los Angelos Valley the true route is by one of the passes through the San Fernando Range, into the Tulare Valley by the pass of the Tehachapec, and thence through that valley and the San Joaquin to San Francisco. These are both important agricultural regions. The Tulare is extensive and has great agricultural power. It is known to have extensive beds of asphaltum, and is believed to possess large deposits of oil. It is a country that cannot be developed by railroad, but will, with one railroad, become the commerce of the State.

ROAD FROM DENVER TO CALIFORNIA.

One of the branches of the Union Pacific Railroad is now engaged in surveying, with the view of construction of a branch from Denver City, which will soon be reached by the Central road, to Albuquerque, on the Rio Grande, a distance of 320 miles; from thence to the Colorado is 440 miles, and from the Colorado to San Francisco, 740. These distances may be increased by the detours of the road. A road from Albuquerque, 240 miles, either by the thirty-fifth parallel, the Texas Central at Van Buren, referred to in De Bow. By making this short connection, California will practically have two roads—one by the thirty-second and the other by the thirty-fifth parallel.

TEXAS ROAD ON THIRTY-SECOND PARALLEL.

In 1860 a French company proposed to advance sixteen millions of dollars to construct the road from the Texas line, near Shreveport, on the Red River, to El Paso, on the Rio Grande. The arrangement was broken off by the civil war, but has been renewed since the peace, and will be carried into effect as soon as Texas is restored to her position in the Union. This route, as stated by the writer in De Bow, as well as the railroad-explorers, passes through a country of great mineral riches, and which has also such mineral resource.

There is no reason to doubt that the donations of land to the Atlantic and and Pacific Railroad will of themselves enable the company to construct the road in time. But it will take too long a period if the company is compelled to rely on the sales of land. There is no good reason why we should not ask of Congress an advance of bonds to the amount of $16,000 to the mile, to the extent of the advance to the Central road.

LOAN OF BONDS BY THE GOVERNMENT.

The Government could take a mortgage on the road to secure principal and interest, requiring the Company to pay the interest as it accrues, so that it will be, in fact, only a loan of its credit. With these bonds the Company could go into the market and raise the money for the rapid construction of the road. Nor would I object to see the same loan of credit to the road to Puget Sound. A loan of about thirty millions to each road would be sufficient to enable the companies to construct these great national works in a few years. There would be no risk to the Government, as the companies would give ample security in the mortgage, even if they failed, as the bonds would be issued only on the completion of the road by sections of twenty-five miles. On the lines adopted the roads would more than pay expenses and interest, as constructed. If the road were commenced on the Pacific, the Colorado and the Arkansas at the same time, each section of twenty-five miles would pay as fast as constructed. The Government would gain in the sale of its public domain, in the growth of the country, the increase of revenue, and the transportation of military stores and the mails. With these roads constructed across the Continent, it would have no further necessity for expensive Indian wars. It would be a wise economy to reduce the army and increase railroads to the frontiers.

The Government has expended more in the late Indian war than it would have cost to construct the Northern road, which would have prevented it. It would be great economy in the Government to loan its credit to the construction of these roads to the Pacific to the amount of sixty millions, thirty to each road, which would be ample, if it had to pay the bonds in the end, of which there is no probability. Indian hostilities can be most economically prevented by furnishing the means of cheap immigration to the over-crowded population of the Atlantic centers, and transferring the European immigration at once to the Great West, instead of retaining it for years in the Atlantic cities.

Nor is there any doubt of the power of Congress to aid in the construction of these roads. As stout a State Rights man as Jefferson Davis contended, both as Secretary of War and afterwards in the Senate, that the connection of the Atlantic and the Pacific by railway was necessary, as part of the public defences. If railroads to the Pacific, as all admit, are more efficient as a public defence than a system of fortifications, they must be equally within the power of the Federal Government.

It is known that there are some conflicts between the companies organized under these various grants, but it would be in the power of Congress by the terms of a new grant to harmonize these conflicting interests, so that all would push forward the great work to the common goal. It is of the utmost importance that this reconciliation should take place.

By reference to the railroad map it will be seen that the road from Galveston, from New Orleans, from Vicksburg, from Memphis, from Cairo, and from St. Louis, by way of VanBuren, will be concentrated at Dallas, in Texas, on the thirty-second parallel, and then connect with the Pacific road at Van Buren.

The system of railroads to the Atlantic is not complete unless Oregon forms a part of the connection. This may be effected most advantageously both to that State and California, by means of the railway from Oregon to Marysville. That road, as part of the great system, should also receive the further aid of Congress.

When this system, projected by Congress, and for which grants of land have already been made, shall have been carried into execution by a moderate loan of the credit of the Government, the Pacific will be bound to the Atlantic by bands of iron. This vast region between the Mississippi and the Pacific, is a glorious empire in itself. It cannot be developed without railroads. When these are completed, it will contribute each year to the mineral wealth and commerce of the country more than the cost of the roads. It is the only portion of the United States which can furnish cheap homes to the emigrant. The great national interests of the whole country demand means of transportation for its agricultural and mineral wealth.

MRS. WOLCOTT'S CERTIFICATE.

QUINCY, Ill., November 5 1866.

MRS. JACKSON, Dear Madam—It is with pleasure that I testify to you, that seeing one of your circulars, which contained certificates and indorsements from the best physicians and druggists, of the unrivalled merits of your Queen Bess, I was induced to give it a trial, with one solid month, cure of the eczema, by it has myself and family, for seven years. Dear Madam, seeing this, and my little daughter, aged fifteen months, having the whooping cough for several months, accompanied with what the doctors call white canker, her mouth and throat being terribly ulcerated, and having tried everything for its relief I could hear of, I was induced to purchase a bottle of your oil for the complexion, called "Queen Bess," went according to the directions, did not use quite one bottle, and I am most happy to state to you that it has cured my child. She is now as well and healthy as ever she was in her life. I give you this, my certificate, hoping you will publish it, that thousands of others who may be afflicted with any of the above affections may at once get a bottle of your "Queen Bess," for I feel sure they will find immediate relief.

Yours respectfully,

MRS. GEO. WOLCOTT,

I bought one bottle, went according to directions, and am truly thankful to say I have found a permanent cure. Hoping you will publish this, that other poor sufferers may be benefited by it, I remain,

☞ It would perhaps seem unnecessary after giving the above title-page to say anything further in the way of recommendation. The name of the author should of itself be a sufficient guarantee of its worth. Bro. Pike, by his learning and contributions has done much to elevate the standard of Masonic literature, and extended a knowledge of its symbolism, ethics and history as any other living man. This book, in its particular department, may justly be considered a master-piece, embracing matter not only useful to the Masonic student of every grade, but to man of science in the highest literary field of the present age. Notwithstanding this book has been preceded by several of a similar character, yet to Bro. Pike alone is due the honor of first exploring this branch of Masonic literature and of opening to the admiration of the Craft its vast storehouse of knowledge and beauty. This work contains the degrees of the Ancient and Accepted Rite from the fourth to the fourteenth inclusive, is elegantly illustrated with chromo-lithograph engravings, showing all the jewels, costume, furniture, etc., belonging to each degree. WHO SHALL BE THE CONSERVATIVE CANDIDATE?

In the present condition of affairs, the Southern people cannot and should not attempt to exercise any control in shaping the issues and choosing a standard bearer in the coming canvass for the Presidency.—Camden (Ark.) Herald and Eagle.

Our worthy cotemporary of the Herald and Eagle after stating that "the Southern people cannot," concludes that they "should not attempt to exercise any control in shaping the issues and choosing a standard bearer." Yet, as if forced to do so, and reluctantly yielding, it announces its preference for President JOHNSON, as the "standard bearer in the coming canvass for the Presidency." If it be an impossibility, which the word "cannot" implies, why proceed to present "the issues," or express preference for any individual? Let us not be understood as expressing any objection to the preference suggested by our Arkansas friends, who certainly have the same right which we should enjoy, were we to express a choice.

Although Tennessee is not in the same category with Arkansas, and the rest of the Southern Provinces, being a State, yet the manner in which she became a State, and the malign influences which have since oppressed her citizens, have exhibited greater tyranny than exercised by some of the military satraps who were appointed over those not yet recognized as entitled to a place in the sisterhood. By pre-arrangement and subsequent additions, the Executive of this State assumes indefinite power, and sets aside the voice of the people at his pleasure—disfranchises those who may not choose to echo his commands, and has a special militia of his own raising and officering, to overawe or ride down whosoever may incur his displeasure; and to maintain and pay this militia the people are taxed. The Provinces have the advantage of this State, from the fact that they are not made to pay their money for their military luxury.

This State enjoys precisely the privileges and immunities which the Radicals are determined, if possible, to inflict upon the Provinces. We are a little in advance—that's all—and are now setting an example which they are sure to follow, unless Radicalism shall receive its quietus at the hands of an outraged people.

Many papers in the North, East and West, and some in the South, have expressed their preferences. In our own State, the Conservative press are divided, although the matter is by no means settled. Whatever may be the determination of the National Conservative or Democratic Convention, will doubtless receive the unqualified support of every true lover of his country, no matter what his previous predilections may have been. There can be no possible harm, even before "reconstructed," in any newspaper that so elects, placing its favorites at the head of its columns, although it may be a custom that some may regard as more honored in the breach than in the observance. Sometimes disputes and controversies arise between those who should be friends and act in concert, but with proper circumspection these may be avoided. We are all engaged in a great cause—the restoration of the Government to its constitutional orbit, and the due observance of the powers and restrictions which so long guided the State and Federal rule in harmonious action. We say all—we mean all who are not leagued with Radicalism, and determined to obliterate every vestige of Constitutional liberty.

In the Conservative ranks the only conflict that can possibly arise—at least, the only one we can now foresee—which can create difficulty, is as to the mode of settling the public debt. Differences of opinion exist, and seem to be confined to the West and a portion of the East—the former espousing the plan advocated by Mr. PENDLETON and his friends, and the latter in the interest of the bondholders, who are understood to be opposed to the payment of the maturing bonds in aught save gold.

We are opposed to raising any issue that can possibly jeopardize the result of the great campaign. The overthrow of Radicalism is the event that must be accomplished before gains should be counted. It will be time enough then to press the claims of favorites.

THE TURNING POINT.

Much significance is due to the invective of the old man malignant, THAD. STEVENS, against GRANT, in which he charges him, according to yesterday evening's dispatches, with having defeated the resolution of impeachment before the Reconstruction Committee. GRANT is the nominee of the Radical party of Tennessee and of several other States for President. The New York Radical State Convention recently conferred that distinction upon the General of the armies of the United States. He stands before the nation to-day as the representative man of the Radical party. He has recently figured too in a correspondence with President JOHNSON in a manner very discreditable to him, as a man of honor and good faith. The President may be said to have left but little of reputation for him to cling to, in circles where high-toned bearing, sincerity and truth are respected as the highest qualities of a man and a patriot. Men may low and smile in his presence, but they can never greet him with the deference and homage due to a man of veracity and unstained honor. Yet THAD. STEVENS says, in his remarkable harangue in the House, that GRANT has saved that President from impeachment to whom he is indebted for an inefaceable wound to his honor that the Presidential robes, nor the Imperial purple, nor kingly crown could remove. What can be the explanation of such an anomaly?

We can think of but one possible key to a mystery so profound. The impeachment of JOHNSON might work a popular revolution that would upset all of GRANT's plans and ambitious aspirations, and defeat his chances for reaching the Presidency. Even STANTON's unscrupulous use of the war power could not prevent the culmination of that rising sentiment in the North which is even now ready to overthrow the Radical villainy and bring into power a better and wiser rule. No other explanation can solve such a mystery. Hence we regard it as the turning point in the tide of affairs, even with the Congressional leaders. They begin to see that they cannot have everything as they wish—that they cannot trample upon the Constitution, law, justice, honor and humanity, without being overtaken by the retribution of an outraged public indignation. Even the chosen standard bearer of the Jacobin faction shrinks from such a fate, and interposes to prevent the wild excesses of his friends. The wedge is thus driven which splits in twain the most infamous and corrupt organization that ever "rose, reigned or fell" in any part of the civilized world or in any age or era of the earth. GRANT and STEVENS are in direct antagonism. The fable of ÆSOP is reversed, and the dead ass is kicked by the living lion. So mote it be.

SEED CORN.

The thrifty farmer always selects his seed from the soundest ears, and should be particular as to the variety. There is mongrelism in corn as well as in parties, and animals. The best variety is that which has the longest grain, because it is the most productive. In every instance endeavour to procure but one kind, and let that be the best, if possible. Do not fail to shell off the butt and the point of the ear, retaining only the middle part for seed. Experience has long since established the fact that this is the only way to insure straight, perfectly filled ears. The long grain, or "gourd-seed" corn invariably has a small cob, which is desirable, although the cob may be serviceable as food, when crushed or ground with corn. The farmer who has paid attention to the economy of his vocation, will have observed the facts here stated. Those who have not had experience of their own will do well to adopt the mode of selecting seed here recommended. In measuring the shelled grain, they will find the species of corn we have indicated will hold out longer than any other variety. A good kind will not require more tillage than the inferior, and mixed seed is not an improvement on the stock. The inferior will have the preponderance, as it is in races.

TENNESSEE LEGISLATURE.

FEBRUARY 10.—In the Senate, the resolution to adjourn on the 3d of March was passed over informally—that is, not touched.

A bill from the House to protect merchants and cotton factors was passed.

Also a bill incorporating Sumner county Agricultural Society.

An act to regulate the publication of legal notices, with amendment providing that the compensation to publishers shall be the same now provided by law for similar services, and that this act take effect sixty days after its passage, which, was adopted, after which the whole question was recommitted to the Judiciary Committee.

In the House there was no quorum, but Mr. Doughty was called on to relate the incidents of the trip of the Tennessee delegation to the Reunion of the Army of the Cumberland at Cincinnati, in the course of which he narrated the perils by the way and the disappointment of losing one day of the "re-union," having been detained by ice on the way, (without sufficient of the ingredients to thaw out.) The Society is to meet annually. Politics are excluded, and according to the doughty orator, "the affair went off radically Radical," and the "Army of the Cumberland will go for the Radical nominee for President, whoever he may be,"—even if it be a nigger. Of the feast, which Cincinnatians know how to provide it is reported: The banquet Friday evening was a magnificent affair. Meats and game and viands of every kind, in every shape and style, abounded in abundance, and wines flowed without stint—perhaps too much so.

"Abounded in abundance" is good, and so must have been the wine, which might have been "Robinson county," to suit the Tennessee delegation who should have been at their legislative duties, although it is but just to say the State suffered nothing by their absence.

ARKANSAS.

A RADICAL CHAPLAIN.

PROTEST OF MEMBERS.

THE CONVENTION ADJOURNED.

Special Dispatch to Memph's Appeal.

LITTLE ROCK, ARK., February 14.—In the Convention the Chaplain delivered his valedictory this morning, in a harangue of half an hour, in which he exhorted the Radical members to go home, canvass their respective counties, and by the help of the Lord the Constitution would be ratified.

The Conservative members presented their written protest to the new Constitution, and desired it attached to the Constitution, which was not allowed, but ordered to be put upon the records. The protest declares the new Constitution to be proscriptive, subversive of the rights of citizens of the State, and if ratified will bring ruin and desolation upon the people.

Several unimportant resolutions were passed, and after a short farewell address from the President the Convention adjourned, subject, according to a resolution, to the call of the President, or in case of his death, to one of the five Vice-Presidents made competent by resolution to fill his place in such an event.

MISSISSIPPI.

Special Dispatch to Memphis Appeal.

JACKSON, MISS., February 14.—The Convention adopted to-day the preamble to the Bill of Rights, which is not different from other documents of similar intent.

Stricklin offered the following as a supplement, but it was not considered:

We, the carpet-bagists and scallawags from the States of Ohio, Vermont, Connecticut, Maine and Africa, do ordain and proclaim this to be the document upon which we predicate all our hopes for the success of the Radical party.

Nothing from Gilem yet on the tax question.

FROM WASHINGTON.

WASHINGTON, February 14.—Attorney General Stanbery, in the Supreme Court to-day, read a letter from the Secretary of the Treasury addressed to him, stating in effect that that department understood that questions as to the constitutionality of the legal tender act had arisen at this term in several cases between private parties, and that they had been discussed and were under advisement, and as the Government had had no opportunity to present argument in support of the law, and owing to the very deep interest felt in the subject by the Government and the country at large, it was hoped that the Attorney General would obtain argument in support of the law before the cases which had been discussed should be decided by the Court. The Attorney General said that owing to his multifarious legal duties he feared he would be unable to prepare proper argument during the present term, and therefore he desired that the Court would not deliver its opinions on these cases, until the next term. The Court took the matter under advisement.

One of the cases alluded to involves purely a question, that in an ordinary debt, whether or not the party has the right to discharge the obligation in legal tender notes. Another case, which was argued by Senators Johnson and Williams, presents a question whether a debtor can pay his taxes in legal tenders in the State of Oregon, it having declared that all its taxes should be paid in gold. The third case, which was argued by Messrs. Carlisle and Wells, is from California, which has a statute declaring that all judiciary taxes shall be paid only in gold.

Gen. Lorenzo Thomas this morning resumed his duties as Adjutant General, by request of the President, and communicated to him through Gen. Grant that Mr. Stanton relieved him in 1863, since when Gen. Townsend has acted as Adjutant General.

The Committee on Ways and Means has decided that the oil tax shall be eight dollars per barrel of forty-five gallons, and that on exports, twenty five cent stamps are to be used. The Committee is engaged in framing a bill regulating the exportation of alcohol, high wines, etc.

The seven-thirties outstanding and falling due on June 15th and July 15th, next, and which are convertible into five-twenty bonds, amount to over $200,000,000, and will require much time between this and July 15th to convert them promptly, at maturity; and the public is notified that unless such notes, which the Government is now offering to convert, are promptly forwarded to the Department for that purpose great delay must ensue in the future delivery of said bonds.

The director of State taxes has furnished a table showing the revenues derived by the General Government from distilled spirits during the fiscal year ending June 13, 1863 to 1867 inclusive, or for five years were $135,356,355 in currency, or a total average of $27,071,171 currency per annum.

Horace Maynard, of Tennessee, left here this evening for New Hampshire, to make speeches in behalf of the Radical candidate for Governor.

The commission recently appointed to consider spirit meters, are in session daily at the Smithsonian Institution.

The Senate has rejected the nomination of George S. Stubblefield as United States Attorney for the Middle District of Tennessee.

The nomination of Lieut.-Gen. Sherman to be General by brevet, was referred by the Senate to the Committee on Military Affairs.

Representative Covode to-day presented a communication to the House, with affidavits, condemning whisky frauds in New Orleans, showing how the Government was cheated out of revenues in that city. The affidavits say 450,000 gallons should be returned in a year, whereas only twenty-three and a half barrels have been returned in six, and further that each distiller has to pay the "Whisky Ring" one thousand dollars per month, the revenue officer getting a part of it.

The following order has just been promulgated:

"Gen. U. S. Grant, Commanding Armies of the United States."

The following was issued from the Adjutant General's office:

FROM NEW ORLEANS.

NEW ORLEANS, February 14.—The Conventfon yesterday adopted a resolution asking for the appointment of Gen. Mower to the command of the Fifth District in case of the removal of Hancock. The resolution was amended so as to substitute Gen. Sheridan for Mower.

To-day was the sixty-fourth day of the session.

Another resolution abolishing the additional thirty per cent. per diem failed.

The Committee on Style reported that the constitution as revised had been sent to the printer, and would be ready for the action of the Convention Monday morning, together with suggestions of the Committee on Amendments proposed.

Convention adjourned until Monday morning.

FROM WILMINGTON.

WILMINGTON, N. C., February 14.—A disastrous fire occurred here last night, during which a number of persons were buried beneath the ruins of a falling wall. One white man and four negroes have thus far been taken from the ruins in a mangled condition, and it is thought all will die. A large number of hands are at work on the ruins to revover other bodies, as it is feared that ten or twelve are beneath them. The loss is about $125,000.

CONGRESSIONAL.

SENATE.

WASHINGTON, February 14.—On the motion of Morgan, a petition relative to further legislation in regard to gold contracts was laid on the table.

Anthony, from the Committee on Naval Affairs, reported a bill to restore Lieut.-Commander Abbott to the retired list. Passed.

On motion of Trumbull, the bill authorizing the temporary supplying of vacancies in the Executive Departments, as reported by him yesterday, was taken up.

Fessenden asked whether thirty days was not an unnecessarily long time for the incumbency of such vacancies.

Trumbull said, as the last law now stands, the President could supply vacancies for eight months.

Fessenden moved to amend it by making it read "ten days," and by inserting after the word "vacancies" "occasioned by death or resignation." Agreed to.

Hume offered an amendment providing that no officer appointed to fill such vacancies shall receive any compensation additional to the salary he is entitled to with such assignment, which, after a discussion, was agreed to and the bill passed.

Wilson, from the Military Committee, reported a bill reducing the expenses of the War Department, and for other purposes. Also, a resolution inquiring of the President whether any new Military Department, Division or District has been authorized, and if so, by what authority of law.

The special order being to admit Philip F. Thomas, Senator elect from Maryland, it was taken up and Buckalew spoke in favor of it. Sherman, Howard and Morton spoke against his admission. Johnson gave notice that he would close the debate on Monday. The Senate then went into executive session and soon after adjourned until Monday.

HOUSE.

Wood offered a resolution directing the General of the army to furnish all correspondence by telegraph or otherwise between himself and Gen. Hancock, relative to the removal of Conechiman in New Orleans. Adopted.

The House then considered the two remaining resolutions in the contested election case of the Second District of Kentucky, declaring that Samuel L. Saiith, the contestant for Mr. Brown's seat, did not receive a majority of the votes cast, and directing the Speaker to notify the Governor of Kentucky that a vacancy exists in that district, but without disposing of the question the House adjourned.

ARKANSAS ITEMS.

—There is a fund for the benefit of the poor in Little Rock, and those desiring relief have to be recommended by responsible persons.

—The amateurs and young men of Little Rock were to give a concert on Thursday evening last for the benefit of the poor.

—The Legislature of the Cherokees at its late session, passed an act appropriating ten thousand dollars for the erection of a building suitable for a capitol, at Tahlequah, the capital of the Nation.

—The Fayetteville Arkansian of the 31st ult., says: "This morning while Lieut. Wilson was engaged in hauling a load of straw with his team of five grey horses, they took fright and ran away, breaking the wagon to pieces and so crippling his fine saddle horse that he was compelled to have him killed. This is a serious loss to Lieut. Wilson, as we understand he had refused $500 for the span.

—The Augusta Sentinel says that Father Leprowsky is there under instructions from the Rt. Rev. Bishop Fitzgerald, prospecting as to the possibility of establishing a Catholic church. The Sentinel urges the citizens to make his mission a success as a means of encouraging white immigration.

—The same paper says: We learn from J. W. Burney, of King's River, Madison county, that a murderous altercation took place between one Wm. Burk and Wm. L. Stansell, of that vicinity, a few days since, in which the latter was seriously wounded by a knife in the hands of Burk. Stansell received two severe wounds on the head, and a cut on the left arm entirely severing the muscle. He is severely, but it is believed not fatally wounded. The quarrel originated in Burk's unlawfully attempting to dispossess Stansell, who was a tenant upon the premises of Burk.

—From the Jacksonport Herald we learn that the citizens of that place have donated liberally land and money for a Catholic church.

—From the Pine Bluff Dispatch we learn that the citizens have determined to have some kind of a landing for steamboats made, or provide a wharfboat for their accommodation.

—The Fayetteville Arkansian, of the 31st ult., says apples are plenty, at one dollar per barrel.

—The Hamburg Times, of the 1st inst., says, "On last Monday night, at about 8½ o'clock, as James L. Pugh was unloading some corn from his wagons, in the crib of Dr. J. M. Owens, the crib suddenly fell, and Frank B. Pugh, son of Dr. F. G. Pugh, who was in the crib, was killed. Before the body could be taken from under the fallen timber, life was wholly extinct."

The Fort Smith Herald of the 1st inst., says, "Mr. D. Smith, (Dow) returned from Polk county on Tuesday, and brought us one or two specimens of silver ore. He thinks it is very rich. Mr. Smith says the county abounds in rich lead mines. The people make their own bullets from the ore."

—A poor woman died at Fort Smith; a coffin was provided for her; some one was hunted to bury her; a crowd of about fifteen negroes standing in the street out of employment, was encountered. Any one of them was offered ten dollars in city scrip, worth five dollars currency, to bury the woman, and the cart to haul the corpse to the grave, but none of them would do it, saying the ground was frozen too hard.

—The Fort Smith Herald of the 1st says: Mr. William Bennet arrived here on Sunday last, direct from Boggy Depot, C. N. He informed us that on the 21st inst., it was reported at Boggy Depot, that the wild Indians had made a raid into Texas, and burned Gainsville, and killed eight men. They had also made a raid into the Chickasaw Nation, and attacked Col. Pickens. He fought them five days, and drove them away. They say they intend to come down on the Chickasaws and Choctaws in the spring. There are white men and negroes among the wild Indians. We learn from a letter to the Clarksville Standard, Texas, dated Gainsville, January 7th, that the Indians had been near Gainsville a few days before and killed an old man by the name of Meinsce, and his little grand child, and took prisoner Mrs. Snegog, her daughter and two children. The old man had gone to the rescue of his daughter and her children, and was returning with them to his home, when he was attacked by the savages and killed. The Indians continued their depredations in that neighborhood for several days, and while in the neighborhood, Mrs. Snegog made her escape.

—The association formed to erect a monument to perpetuate the memory of Abrahsm Lincoln, announce that of the $200,000 required to erect a monument on the plan they have adopted, they have $134,000, and that if the remainder is not raised by April 14th, they will reduce their plans, and build one the cost of which will be covered by the money that may be on hand.

—Mr. Gladstone, the chief of the English Liberals, has written a letter, in which, while expressing the opinion that "unions of working men are rather to be commended than otherwise," he objects broadly "to all rules which tend to limit the freedom of labor, or to produce an artificial equality among workmen, and this mainly on the ground of the injury which they do to the working classes."

ANALYSIS OF THE

RALEIGH MINERAL SPRINGS.

THE SCHEME FOR THE DISPOSITION OF the Mineral Springs at Raleigh is before the public. That there may be no misunderstanding as to the properties of the water, the analysis of five principal Springs is given to the public. The Springs respectively named, MARBLE, CROCK and EUREKA, were analyzed by Professor Hunt, of St. Louis, Mr. Eno, Sanders. Subsequently, two other Springs have been developed and named respectively, BAYLESS and MAGNOLIA. During the past summer the water of these Springs was submitted to Mr. Theo Hoerner, one of the most celebrated chemists in this or any other country. The analysis, given below, was the work of time and

AMUSEMENTS.

THE NEW MEMPHIS.—The audience at the New Memphis Theater last night to witness the third presentation of the Black Crook was immense, every seat being filled and standing room at a premium. The piece runs smoothly. There is little doubt but that the matinee this afternoon will be largely and fashionably attended.

THE VARIETIES.—The Arkansaw Traveler, Miss Sallie Eldridge, and the sweet balladist, Miss Helen DeVere, are applauded nightly, while the ballet, under the direction of Miss Lamaraux, is very fine. Go to the Varieties, laugh and grow fat.

THE CIRCUS.—The great circus and menagerie, under the management of that prince of good fellows, Jno. Robinson, opens to-day on the bluff, where lovers of the curious should be on hand.

HOSIERY of all qualities, both for ladies and gentlemen, is now lying on the counters marked in plain figures, being retailed at extremely low prices—purchased at the bankrupt sales by M. Wolf & Co., 230 Main street.

AFFAIRS IN MISSISSIPPI.

Farming Operations, Etc.—Vicinity of Sardis.

RURAL HOME, MISS., February 14 1868.

Edit rs Memphis Appeal:

Presuming that a few words concerning affairs in the vicinity of Sardis might not be uninteresting to some of your readers at least, I hastily drop a few items. Leaving Memphis, I took passage on the Mississippi and Tennessee Railroad—by the way, one of the smoothest running, and, since the late change of schedule making fast time necessary, makes perhaps the fastest time of any road in the South. The officers on this road, too, are of the most courteous, following the high toned example of the popular and efficient Superintendent, A. S Livermore. Fifty miles distant from Memphis on this road is the flourishing town of Sardis. At this place the trains stop for meals, and well are they served, too, by your former fellow-townsman, Mr. Charley Richards, who is doing much to break down the prejudices against railroad eating houses. Though very little has been done as yet towards rebuilding that portion of Sardis recently consumed by fire, there is a manifest intention on the part of the inhabitants to not only rebuild, but to erect better tenements until Sardis shall have become a place of considerable importance; and that this will be done is evident to those familiar with the natural resources of the country. The town enjoys a liberal and public spirit of its citizens. Among other improvements spoken of is the establishment of a newspaper, which it is supposed will be started in that place during the spring.

A meeting of the citizens of the county was held at the Baptist Church in Sardis on Saturday last for the organization of a Conservative Democratic Association. The meeting was largely attended and passed off very harmoniously, and with one exception the voting on the various motions and resolutions was done with the most singular unanimity. The exception was a resolution of thanks to Col. S. S. Howe, Delegate to the black-and-tan Convention from Panola county. Camp Cump introduced the resolution, stating at the same time that although Mel Howe was a native of Massachusetts and elected to the so-called Convention at Jackson by a purely negro vote, yet that gentleman by his Conservative course in that Convention, and his refusal to co-operate with the Radicals, entitled him to the confidence of the people of Panola county. The resolution drew forth very able discussion from Dr. Ellis, Capt. Mathews, Gen. Foster and others and was finally unanimously adopted.

The Association adopted the name and principles of the Democratic party, electing Dr. Ellis President and Capt. Crump Secretary.

After the transaction of its business the meeting adjourned subject to the call of the President.

The farmers in this neighborhood are making active preparations for the coming year, but from what I can learn with little confidence in planting only their most fertile soil, and that in grain and articles for home consumption. They have become convinced at last that it will not pay to plant cotton to buy meat and bread with, as many did last year. Nearly all are in debt but nobody is able to pay anything, and already a system of bartering is taking the place of Uncle Sam's greenback currency.

The negroes seem to have an idea that the most honest and most speedy method of revenge they can have is housburning, and they try this project very often. A negro who received a severe reprimand from Jno. E. Sullivan, his employee, for killing an ox by improper treatment set fire to that gentleman's residence about one o'clock in the morning in two different places, the heat and smoke of which awakened the inmates of the house in time to prevent the loss of life or property by the flames. The incendiary scoundrel has not since been heard from. A few evenings since the corn-crib and stables with eight or nine horses belonging to Dr. Carter, living about two miles from Sardis, were set on fire and totally destroyed—the work of a negro whom he had insulted the day before. He was caught in the act and is now awaiting trial in the county jail. It is to be hoped that an example may be made of this negro, and then perhaps there will be less of this fearful crime in our midst.

With best wishes for your paper, I am,
SHAKSPEARE, JR.

OUR SENIOR.—A New Orleans paper has the following:

Banquet to Albert Pike.—A magnificent banquet was given on the 7th inst., at Masonic Hall, to Gen. Albert Pike, Sovereign Grand Commander Supreme Council, Scotch Rite Masonry for the Southern Jurisdiction of the United States, upon the eve of his departure from our city. The illustrious guest occupied a seat in the center of the table, which was arranged so as to represent three sides of a square. Near him were seated Gen. Harry T. Hays and S. B. Buckner, Grand Master S. B. Todd, Deputy Grand Master H. R. Seasey, M. W. G. M. A. J. Norwood, R. W. G. Treasurer J. C. Batchelor, together with other prominent and distinguished members of the Order.

After the substantials had been discussed, and the sparkling wines brought on, the following toasts were offered and gracefully responded to: "The President of the United States,", responded to by Col. Case in the absence of Gen. James B. Steedman.

"The Grand Master of the State of Louisiana," responded to briefly by A. J. Norwood.

"Our Invited Guest" was responded to in a most eloquent manner by Gen. Pike, and his address being listened to with the most wrapt attention by all present.

"The Supreme Council A and A Rite," responded to by Dr. Batchelor.

"The Grand Consistory of Louisiana," responded to by G. M. S. M. Todd.

"The Grand Orient of France," responded to by Joseph Santini.

"Grand Commandery of Louisiana," responded to by Joseph P. Horner.

"The Grand Chapter of Louisiana," responded to by H. P. Buckley.

Justice M. Floyd, the well known manager of the Varieties Theater, sang his famous song of "Wearin' o' the Green," and the talented young actor, Edwin Adams, also a member of the order, repeated, with fine effect, Hamlet's soliloquy "To be or not to be."

"Albert Pike Council P. P. of I. and Albert Pike Lodge of Perfection," responded to by Emmett D. Craig.

"The Subordinate Lodges of Louisiana," responded to by C. H. Luzenburg.

"Universal Masonry," responded to by S. Scruggs.

"The State of Louisiana," responded to by Gen. Harry T. Hays.

"Absent Friends," responded to by Geo. W. Race.

"The Press," responded to by Geo. L. Catlin, of the Crescent, a member of the Order, in place of Col. J. O. Nixon, who was unavoidably absent.

The last toast proposed was that to "Woman," which was responded to by Gen. Buckner, in his usual felicitous style.

The festivities were kept up till a late hour, and were marked throughout by the evidence of that genial good feeling and fraternal affection which distinguishes the reunions of the most ancient order.

FINANCIAL AND COMMERCIAL.

OFFICE OF THE DAILY APPEAL, MEMPHIS, February 14, 1868.

There is still much complaint about the delay in transmission of currency to this point. Shipments due here several days ago have not yet arrived. The delay appears to be mostly along the road from Louisville upon a section of which the employees are still on a strike, causing much annoyance and detention. In consequence of the non-receipt of currency few if any of our banks are able to do more than a small business in the way of exchange. Eastern sight is taken sparingly at ½c discount and sold at par. New Orleans bills are bought at ½c discount. Selling at ½c premium.

Gold opened in New York to-day at 140c, and closed at 141½c. The decline has not developed any large amounts in this market. Dealers are looking forward to a further fall in the premium, and are not offering more than 138c with very light transactions.

City Scrip is very quiet. The amounts now upon the market are not desirable, as they are made up of large and unavailable prices, too large for the majority of tax payers. Small amounts suitable for the payment of wharfage dues are in good demand by levee brokers who have sprung up since the late election. For such pieces 45 to 50c could be readily obtained, but dealers are well supplied with the large warrants and decline to buy at better than 38 to 40c. Selling at 42 to 43c.

County Warrants are still dull. Dealers are not in the market. There is no buying rate. Selling at 60 to 62c.

Police Scrip is in fair demand. Buying at 80 to 82c. Selling at 84 to 85c.

Cotton in Liverpool at the opening today was quiet, Uplands 8¼d, Orleans 7¾d. At noon it was easier, but at the close it was reported firmer, though quotations were no lower, Uplands 8¼ to 8¾d, Orleans 8¼ to 8¾d. Sales for the day, 10,000 bales; week's sales, 115,000 bales; sales for export, 25,000 bales; to speculators, 19,000 bales; stock on hand, 288,000 bales, of which 122,000 is American. It is estimated that there is 240,000 bales afloat, of which 140,000 is American. The New York market at the opening was dull with holders anxious to realize, Uplands 20½ to 20¾c, Orleans 21c. At noon the market was dull and prices nominal, and at the close was also dull and tending downwards with prices entirely nominal. Sales, 1,000 bales. Our market was moderately active early in the day, and Middlings sold at 19½, but as the news came in buyers withdrew. The market has been very quiet when we consider the stock on hand and the desire of sellers to realize, but this is more attributable to the continued scarcity of currency than to any difference in the views of buyer and seller. At the close there was almost no inquiry and Middlings were in a few cases bought at 18¾ in small lots. We quote the market dull and nominal as follows:

Ordinary	15½@16
Good Ordinary	16½@17
Low Middling	17½@18
Middling	18 @18½
Strict Middling	19 @—
Good Middling	20 @—

NOT QUITE A MIRACLE!

—BUT A—

GREAT DISCOVERY.

Butter Made Plenty and Cheap!

THIS improvement makes the cow give twice as much Milk. It makes the milk yield double as much Butter as the ordinary plan.
Then, to cap the climax, it takes one-half less cake a pound of Butter out of a pint of Sweet Cream, as a matter of fact, no drugs used. It is no hum- bug, no Yankee trick,
but a new principle in a one-armed Confederate soldier, and warrants it to do all he claims for it. He has also several other recipes of great value.

One to cure Toothache in one minute;
" " " Rheumatism in a few days;
" " " Piles in one week;
" " " Chills and Fever in two hours;
" " " Weak Eyes in Horses.

A Vinegar Recipe that came from Brazil, supposed to be the best in the world.

All or either of the above he will sell at the following low prices: The Milk and Butter recipes, all three, $2; either of the others, $1 each. Send your orders to W. L. FAMBRO, 219 Main street, Memphis, Tenn.

N. CORONNA.....Treasurer.
DEPOSITORY—German National Bank
F. Y. ROCKETT.....Financial Secretary.

$34,500 IN PREMIUMS.

NUMBER of PRIZES, 25.
CERTIFICATES, $5 EACH.
A Fortune or a Homestead for $5.
CAPITAL PRIZE VALUED AT $20,000 00.

Which amount has recently been offered for the Springs and grounds immediately surrounding.

PRIZE NO. 1.

The celebrated Raleigh Mineral Springs, situated on the confines of Raleigh, late County Seat of Shelby county, Tenn., and within the limits of Memphis, and two miles from Wells' Station, on the Memphis and Louisville Railroad. These Springs are well known for their various mineral and medicinal qualities, and are visited every summer by thousands of seekers of health and pleasure, from all quarters of the country. They are within a few steps of the village of Raleigh, in a beautiful valley, and also within a few hundred feet of Wolf river, which is situated at the base of the eminence on which the village of Raleigh is situated, and empties into the "Father of Waters" at Memphis. The many remarkable cures of various diseases have been experienced by sojourners at the Springs, both in the past and the present proprietor, Col. J. M. Coleman, can produce hundreds of certificates of cures to prove what has been said, many given by the medical skill. The ground surrounding the Springs, and in fact the entire village of Raleigh, rises to an eminence of pure air, and is so remarkable for its healthfulness as beauty of location. The Springs are a fine resort, never failing, and are designated as follows:

MAGNESIA SPRING,
BOX SPRING,
MAGNOLIA SPRING,
ARSENIC SPRING,
SULPHUR SPRING,
FREESTONE SPRING.

The place has never been visited by persons of any kind, and peculiarly characteristic of its healthfulness is the activity of the inhabitants. The oldest citizens of Shelby county are residents of Raleigh.

The Springs are as much resorted to by pleasure seekers as by invalids, owing to beauty of scenery and surroundings, as well as natural attractions. Connected with the Springs are a Pavilion, Ladies' Bow ing Alley, Rustic Arbors Reading Saloons, Piazzas, Bar, Billiard Saloon, Billiard Room, Gymnasium, Refreshment Tables, etc., while Wolf river affords excellent Boating and Fishing.

The grounds accompanying the Springs, in the above described limits, are beautiful. First Prize, fifteen acres in extent, overlooking the valley and affords in addition to a magnificent site for a grand hotel and other buildings, splendid facilities for a park, promenades, etc.

An analysis of the several Springs, by distinguished medical men, shows that they are unsurpassed in mineral and curative properties by any in the United States. There is no reason then why Raleigh should not become as famous as Saratoga, Sharon or Lebanon, and as largely patronized. It needs only capital and enterprise to accomplish this end.

A charter is before the State Legislature for the incorporation of the Springs, and a movement has been inaugurated looking to direct rail communication with Memphis.

For the prize, $20,000 was recently offered, which is considered by many under that the above scheme may be fully carried out.

PRIZE NO 2.

The elegant country mansion house and lot residence of Col. J. M. Coleman is within a few rods of the Springs. The house is in first class order, contains 9 rooms and is beautifully embowered in shrubbery. The lot is well fenced in, ornamented with shade and fruit trees, and affords all necessary out-houses, cisterns, etc. It is midway between the village and Spring Valley, on the main promenade. Value $8000.

PRIZE NO. 3.

One thousand dollars in cash.

PRIZE NO. 4 TO 25.

Twenty-two cottage lots valued at $250 each. These lots are a portion of the village of Raleigh, delightfully situated, and fronting on thoroughfares and will be drawn with the understanding that the purchasers shall have free access at all times to the Springs and belongings.

Details of the Drawing.

Six thousand and seven hundred tickets, representing the certificates issued, will be placed in one wheel, and the same number of blanks, including twenty five inscribed with the names of the premiums, will be placed in another. From these wheels tickets will be drawn at the same time, and the number drawn will take the premium drawn at the same time.

All moneys received upon the sale of these tickets will be placed in the German National Bank of Memphis, and will remain there to the credit of the Association until the drawing takes place.

KAVANAGH & DECKER'S

BILLIARD TABLES

THE most reliable Cushion used on Billiard Tables is the

Cat-Gut Cushion,

Manufactured by KAVANAUGH & DECKER, and patented December 18, 1866. (See Scientific American, Vol. 15, No. 25.)

It is the only Cushion that possesses all the qualities essential to a perfect Cushion. It is the most elastic and most durable Cushion ever offered to the billiard-playing public, as is known by its introduction. The peculiar manner in which the Cat-Gut Cushion and renders it superior to all others, is the tight-ened cords of cat-gut which encircles the face and edge of the Cushion, which prevents the ball from buddling into the rubber and jumping from the tables. The addition of the cat-gut cord also adds much to the elasticity of the Cushion.

The Cat-Gut Cushion has already been applied to over 1000 tables, which are its constant use. It can be applied to tables of any make, for $75 per set.

Cavanagh & Decker's Factory, at the corner of Centre and Canal streets, N. Y., is the most complete of its kind in the world. The manufacturing of the materials used, the remarkable lumber drying room the largest in the United States, the material used the best that can be purchased, and the workmen thoroughly skilled.

Billiard Cloth, Balls, Cues and Trimmings, all of the best make, constantly on hand.

MEMPHIS APPEAL.

[The Natchez Democrat of a late date, publishes a poem from the pen of Mr. Signaigo, once a favorite contributor to the columns of the APPEAL, with this encomium. Mr. S. has now a page of his own, and renders it very popular among the good people of Grenada, although he finds time to keep up his acquaintance with a goodly number of friends:]

The Spirit Banner.

This is the title of an original poem, published for the first time, in our paper this morning. It is from the pen of our friend J. Augustine Signaigo, editor of the Grenada Sentinel, who is at present in our city. For happiness of conception, excellence and poetry of expression, we think it ranks among the very best of his many beautiful poems. For the reader who yet preserves a tender recollection of the days when the now "spirit banner" waved in triumph over the hills and valleys of the South, this poem will possess the rare merit of awakening the glorious echoes of the dead past, and carrying the imagination back to "the land where we were dreaming."

THE SPIRIT BANNER.
BY J. AUGUSTINE SIGNAIGO.

Think of it without a fear,
For it never knew a fear,
Waving high;
White and stainless as a bride,
It was once our hope and pride—
Can it lie?

On its sic-ping heroes' breast,
Wake it not, but let it rest—
Sleeping light;
For its honor is more bright
Than the sun at noon-day's light.

Emblem of the noblest cause,
Heaven's truth and human laws,
Freedom first of!
Priize of the down-trodden South,
At the withering touch of wrath,
You never fail-d!

Through the fierce and fearful fray,
You were first to lead the way,
And never quailed!
E'en the future time will say,
You were meteor of the day.

When you fell great Freed m sighed,
For the proudest emblem died,
That e'er waved.
Flag of faith and Heavenly light,
Battling for the truth and right,
You never er, ved;
But on land, and o'er the seas,
Every breath, every breeze,
You have braved;
And but succumbed to the tide,
When the light of freedom died.

Never let the tear-drop start,
For the shrined within a heart
Firm as rocks!
Place around its folds—a shield,
Made, in truth, of faithful steel,
With the box;
Locust, lily and of lune,
Laurel, violet or love,
With the phlox;
Arbor vi, and bell,
Cedar, bay and immortelle.

Gaze at it in silence here,
Shrouding now the heroes' bier,
Who have died!
For ne'er waved a whiter flag
On the ocean, palm or crag
With more pride!
Crowned with laurels it has fled,
Leading on our martyred dead,
Heavenly bride!
Marching them with glory's crown,
Meek, but proudly to the Throne.

BY TELEGRAPH.

Noon Dispatches.

NEW YORK, February 14.—Advices from Cuba state that Gen. Lersen has asked information of the American Consul relative to the supposed American slaver off Nassau. Terrio, one of Maximilian's ministers, died of vomito. Lombardo, Ladunez, Martinez, Suits Anna, Marcu, Ibana and Flores, Mexican Imperialists, are still in Cuba.

The World's special correspondent had a personal interview with Thad. Stevens yesterday, the details of which show that the Democrats are the Party responsible to impeachment, and that he (Stevens) was not disappointed in the vote of the committee, by which his resolutions were tabled, as his long experience enabled him to know every coward in Congress.

The Tribune's dispatch says that when the vote in the Committee had been declared against Stevens' resolutions on impeachment, Stevens said: "Sir, the Republican party has been killed this day by the action of this Committee, at the instance of Gen. Grant and his friends. I have found, for the last two or three days, that the very men who talk and shout the loudest, and enthusiastically throw up their hats, are the ones for U. S. Grant, have been using every exertion to demoralize Mr. Bingham and the other members of this Committee who were supposed to favor impeachment. Grant has been using his influence everywhere to defeat the scheme, and Andrew Johnson can thank him that he remains undisturbed in the White House. I have been in public life for forty years, and though I do not pretend to any gift of prophecy, I can see seldom when mistaken in my predictions. I tell you to-day's cowardly action will cost us New York, Pennsylvania, Ohio, and probably three or four more Northern States."

The New York Herald's Washington special says Gen. Grant made telegraphs to Gen. Grant that he is not yet certain whether the new constitution in Alabama is accepted or rejected. He says it is reported that in some cases no election was held on the 4th inst., and in others the vote was held on either of the four days. He is investigating these reports, and if he finds them true he will order a special election in these counties. So the constitution may be ratified.

LONDON, February 13.—Parliament reassembled yesterday. In the House of Lords there was a full attendance, but Lord Derby was not present, being ill with the gout. After the usual preliminaries incidental to reopening the session, the Queen's speech was delivered. The House adjourned without transacting any business.

In the House of Commons, Mr. Lefore gave notice of his intention of calling up the question of the Alabama claims on the 4th of March. Lord Stanley said that no dispatch on the subject had been sent to Washington later than the one last published.

Mr. Disraeli brought up a bill to prevent bribery and corruption in elections. It provides for a Committee of Inquiry, consisting of eminent lawyers, to be appointed by the Speaker of the House of Commons, to visit places of election and investigate all charges of bribery. After a considerable debate, the bill was read for the first time. The House then adjourned.

LONDON, February 13.—It is reported that a great conspiracy against the Austrian Emperor has been discovered in Hungary.

HAVANA, February 13.—Advices from St. Thomas to the 24 inst. state that the cholera continued unabated, and a penalty was inflicted upon the inhabitants for failing to notify the police authorities of the existence of any case of the disease that might occur.

Gov. Beach had gone to St. Croix.
